

ARTS117G : Art History I

This course surveys the history of art and design in Western and non-Western traditions from prehistoric to the 14th century including the Gothic period in Europe. The course emphasizes the connections among historical, political, social, religious and artistic developments, showing how artists and designers are influenced by the culture and time in which they live.

Credits 3

Theory Hours 3

Lab Hours 0

Semester Offered

Fall/Summer semesters

Notes

(Fulfills Humanities requirement.)